Udaipur City. View of the Palace. Udaipur is the marvellously picturesque capital of the state of Mewar founded in the 16th century. The city is surrounded by a bastioned wall, protected on the W. by a beautiful lake, N. and E. by a moat, while on the S. the fortified hill of Eklingarh rises steep and rugged. The Royal Palace is an imposing edifice in granite and marble rising 100 feet from the ground and flanked by towers crowned with cupolas.
